Colquhoun, Archibald Hugh Grosvenor, 1861-1936 Jan. 1920 (004)

January 17th, 1920

Dr. A. H. U. Colquhoun,
Department of Education,
Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Dear Dr. Colquhoun:

The staff of the University in Modern Languages has asked me to try to arrange a Conference with the Department of Education for the discussion of changes in the teaching of Modern Languages. They have also asked me to submit to you the enclosed memorandum of the Modern Languages course. I may say that the suggested course has not yet been discussed by the Faculty of Arts, but it has been transmitted to the Faculty by the Board of Undergraduate Studies. They would like to have this course considered in the Conference of the Department of Education with themselves.

Yours sincerely,

President.

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY MINISTER.
